

236. STRONG ARMS

Intro: A9 - A9/C# - D - E (2x)

Verse 1:           A9  A9/C#  D          E
My child I knew you, before the world begun,
          A9      A9/C#                  D          E
I was there everytime, you wrote your name on the sand
          Bm      C#m                  D          F#m
And lately I know you've been through quite a storm,
          Bm      C#m                  D          E          D  E
My child I've been there since the day you were born.

Refrain:           A9      A9/C#          D          E
Oh, and I rule the wind, oh yes and I calm the sea
          A9      A9/C#          D          E
And the sun won't go down until I say it can leave
          Bm      C#m                  D          F#m
And as sure as my word, I'll be there right by your side
                  Bm  C#m          D  E (pause)
And if your just to weak to go on
          E                                  Intro
Remember child..... that I'm your strong arm.

Verse 2:           A9      A9/C#          D          E
How people will wander, and they'll stand amazed
          A9      A9/C#          D          E
They'll say you're a miracle, and I will be praised
          Bm      C#m                  D          F#m
And even though your pains has been so quite to bear
          Bm      C#m                  D          E          D  E
Just know that I'm with you there's no need to despair.

(Refrain 2x)

Coda:           Bm  C#m          D  E
and if you're just to weak to go on .... (3x)
          E                                  Intro
Remember child that, I'm your strong arm.
